

BCG Platinion Grows Its Presence in Central Europe with Office Opening in Zurich

ZURICH, January 24, 2023—BCG Platinion opens its 17th European office in Zurich, giving the global strategy consultancy specializing in technology a presence throughout the whole of Central Europe.

Located in the heart of Zurich, this opening further expands BCG Platinion’s global reach, following recent office openings in Casablanca, Vienna, and Dubai. This expansion increases the firm’s total number of locations to 40 worldwide.

Established in 2000, BCG Platinion combines BCG’s strategic perspective with bold technology and digital expertise to invent, design, and develop digital products, platforms, and solutions. Currently, more than 800 digital, data, and technology experts at BCG Platinion support clients across all major industries from strategy to execution, helping them to successfully deliver on the most complex and demanding digital transformation agendas.

The new office will bring a broader range of world-class technology and digital transformation capabilities to BCG’s already strong portfolio in Switzerland, covering technology strategy and architecture, enterprise solutions, cybersecurity, cloud, and agile technology delivery.

“With the launch of BCG Platinion in Zurich, we’ve reached an important milestone for our technology offering in Central Europe. Combining BCG Platinion’s deep technology expertise with BCG’s digital transformation offering in Switzerland, we’re uniquely positioned to address our clients’ future challenges,” says Jürgen Rogg, Managing Director and Senior Partner, BCG’s Technology and Digital Advantage Practice leader in Central Europe.

The new unit is led by Lukasz Marganski, Managing Director with over 20 years of experience in the technology field, who has successfully established BCG Platinion’s presence in Central and Eastern Europe in recent years.

“I am excited to bring BCG Platinion’s deep technology capabilities to the region,” says Marganski. “My objective is to build a team of passionate technology professionals who are driven by using their strategic business perspective and in-depth technology expertise to empower our clients to succeed.”

“BCG Platinion enables companies to deeply embed technology in their DNA,” says Joachim Stephan, Managing Partner BCG Switzerland. “Central Europe, and
